Subject contents	Vocabulary:
	Vocabulary activities develop students' knowledge and use of common-core technical and sub-technical vocabulary. Activities deal with lexical sets (e.g. physical properties and shapes) and word families; diagrams clarify the key technical terms associated with a process.
	Some pronunciation work on syllable stress is covered.
	Grammar:
	The grammar is presented in a simple, straightforward manner and gives only the basic minimum of information necessary. Students learn narrative, present, future, tenses, relative and time clauses and modals.
	Writing:
	Writing skills are developed through which students might have to produc e.g. process explanations, reports, C	al training. Writing activities include
	Reading:
	The aims of reading activities vary fr technical details. The reading texts r
	Speaking:
	Speaking activities aim to equip students with the skills to communicate effectively with fellow professionals, colleagues, trainers and customers. Speaking tasks reflect real world situations such as giving instructions, comparing products, arguing and defending a point of view, questioning, interviewing, checking information and arranging meetings. Students are guided towards preparing and giving presentations based on notes and diagrams.
	Listening: Listening skills are developed through a variety of activities using audio texts set in both work and training context. Audio texts include phone conversations, interviews, customer service and presentations. Studen listen for the main idea or specific information.
Prerequisites and co-requisites	Students in B1 groups must have already attained A2 or A1 level, those in B2 groups B1 level, those in C1 groups B2 level and those in C2 at least C1 level.
